THE DEBUT OF THE BRAZILIAN COURT BEACH CLUB PRESENTS HOTEL GUESTS WITH EXCLUSIVE BEACH ACCESS FOR THE FIRST TIME

PALM BEACH, FLA -- May 22, 2009 -- The Brazilian Court Hotel -- an icon of Palm Beach society with its classic Mediterranean style and 80 exquisitely redesigned suites -- announces today the debut of the Brazilian Court Beach Club. For the first time in the history of the hotel, guests will have exclusive and complimentary access to the private beach club, which will open in July 2009.

A day at the beach is no ordinary activity when it begins with a short, chauffeured car ride along the palm-lined streets of Palm Beach to the Brazilian Court Beach Club. Upon arrival, guests choose between sand-in-the-toes sunning at the shore and lounging poolside on plush chaise lounges or under the shade of a private cabana. Beach club guests also enjoy beachside or poolside dining and cocktail service with signing privileges to their Brazilian Court guest suite account.

Those wanting to stay out of the sun head indoors to the full-service spa and indulge in a signature treatment or find peace and relaxation in the meditation garden. For active guests, a yoga studio, daily yoga classes, and complete fitness center are all available at the Brazilian Court Beach Club.

Located in the heart of what is known as "America's Riviera" The Brazilian Court is just steps from the sapphire Atlantic Ocean and Worth Avenue and has a Frederick Fekkai salon and exquisite cuisine by Chef Daniel Boulud at Café Boulud. Custom designed suites feature details including mahogany crown molding, Provence-style wood shutters, king-sized beds topped with imported linens and Ultra Air Jet baths with customized hydrothermo massage menus. Private terraces featured in most rooms open up to guests very own secret garden, offering the perfect respite as the day wans on the golden shoreline of Palm Beach.
