

THE BRAZILIAN COURT PAMPERS PARENTS-TO-BE WITH THE “OH BABY, BABY” BABYMOON ESCAPE

PALM BEACH, Fla. - June 15, 2009 - The Brazilian Court Hotel -- an icon of Palm Beach society with its classic Mediterranean style and 80 exquisitely redesigned suites -- invites expecting parents to pamper themselves in true Palm Beach style with the introduction of the "Oh Baby, Baby" package. With rates starting at $440/night for a two-night stay, the Brazilian Court presents a peaceful and quiet escape before the baby arrives. From soothing pre-natal yoga and an energizing blow-out at Frederic Fekkai Salon & Spa to sweet & salty snacks designed to cure cravings and refreshing “virgin-tinis” for two-and-a-half, parents-to-be return home ready to take on those late-night feedings.

“OH BABY, BABY”
Available through fall 2009
Starting at $440/night

- Pre-natal yoga for mommy to be
- Crave-curing treats
- One mommy blow out at Frederic Fekkai Salon & Spa
- “Virgin-tinis” for two-and-a-half
- Dinner for two-and-a-half at Café Boulud

Located in the heart of what is known as “America’s Riviera,” the Brazilian Court is just steps away from both the beach and Worth Avenue, showcasing some of the world’s finest shopping, galleries and presenting future moms plenty of post-baby clothing options to shop for. The East Coast answer to Rodeo Drive, Worth Avenue showcases coveted designers such as Jimmy Choo, Gucci and Chanel along its pristine streets. Palm Beach also boasts the epitome of fine culture with the Norton Museum of Art to the botanical masterpieces of the Four Arts Gardens and the stunning performances of The Palm Beach Symphony.

Boasting a decades old pedigree, the allure of the Brazilian Court has attracted the most esteemed of the social registry from the Hearst's and Trump's to the Kennedy's and Pulitzer's. Now aligned with renowned icons Frederic Fekkai and Chef Daniel Boulud, the hotel redefines its place at the epicenter of Palm Beach society featuring custom designed suites with mahogany crown molding and Provence-style wood shutters, stone flooring imported from the Cortone region of France and Ultra Air Jet baths with customized hydro-thermo massage menus.
