ENJOY A SUMMER WORTH REMEMBERING AT THE BRAZILIAN COURT HOTEL

PALM BEACH, Fla. -- The Brazilian Court Hotel -- fully open for the first time in six years after a $35 million investment in perfection -- invites couples to enjoy a romantic summer “WORTH REMEMBERING” at this boutique hotel where the social registry of Palm Beach escapes. Available now through Sept. 30, 2009, The Worth Remembering packages allows lovebirds to discover the history of Palm Beach while making memories along the way. An icon of Palm Beach society designed by famed Rosario Candela and Maurice Fatio, the Brazilian Court features the award-winning Café Boulud and Frederic Fekkai Salon & Spa, as well as the Author Breakfast Series hosted by Parker Ladd and exclusive Jewelry Luncheons.

A SUMMER WORTH REMEMBERING

Now through Sept. 30, 2009

Starting at $356/night*

- Suite accommodations for two evenings
- Tickets for two to the Flagler Museum
- Café Boulud picnic lunch for two
- Historic bike or car tour of Palm Beach
- Coffee Table souvenir book
- Complimentary valet parking

Fringing Worth Avenue, the Brazilian Court boasts a storied past as a favorite of socialites, celebrities, Palm Beach power players and media moguls such as Cary Grant, Greta Garbo, Amelia Hearst and Marjorie Merriweather Post, since 1926. After a complete transformation, the hotel features custom designed suites with mahogany crown molding and Provence-style wood shutters, stone flooring imported from the Cortone region of France and Ultra Air Jet baths with customized hydro-thermo massage menus. Private terraces featured in most rooms open up to guests very own secret garden, offering the perfect respite as the day wanes on the golden shoreline of Palm Beach.

A historic tour ushers couples back in time to the Gilded Age of Palm Beach with an insiders look at The Henry Flagler Museum and the island’s secluded “Estate” section where three streets were deemed the world’s most beautiful by Town & Country. Among a day of exploring, couples relax over a picnic lunch, indulging in signature French fare from renowned Chef Daniel Boulud. The Frederic Fekkai Salon and Spa at the Brazilian Court offers his and hers cuts and colors along with hot rock massages and indulgent European facials. Whether perusing the designer staples of Worth Avenue, romantic al fresco dining in the courtyard or relaxing at the pool in plush chaises lined in crisp white linen, the only interruptions to be heard are the whispering of lush foliage and palms trees in the soft Florida breeze.

To enjoy a romantic escape that is WORTH REMEMBERING, contact The Brazilian Court at (561)
